RELATIVE TO THE

GRANT OF TITLES AND HONORARY DISTINCTIONS

IN INDIA.

No. 1.

From A. R. Young, Esquire, Secretary to the Government of Bengal, to the Officiating Secretary to the Government of India, Foreign Department, No. 195, dated the 15th May, 1860.

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of the letters from your office, Nos. 3049 and 3841, dated respectively the 25th May, and 28th June, 1859, the former requiring the Lieutenant Governor's opinion on the general subject of the grant of titles and honorary distinctions to Natives and Native Chiefs of India, and the latter calling for a Return of the titles and honorary distinctions which have been conferred by the British Government on Native Chiefs and others in the Lower Provinces, as also for a list of persons claiming or assuming titles which have not been granted to them by Government.

2. The Lieutenant Governor regrets the delay which has occurred in complying with the above requisitions. Immediately on the receipt of Mr. Beadon's letter of the 28th June last, the several Commissioners, subordinate to this Government, were desired to furnish the Returns required in the form therein prescribed. Some difficulty appears to have been experienced in collecting the required information; and many of the Returns have only very recently been received, that from the Commissioner of Chota Nagpore having come in only on the 25th ultimo.

3. From these Returns the two lists required by the Government of India have been compiled, and are herewith transmitted for submission to the Hon'ble the President in Council.

4. In regard to the general subject of the grant of titles and distinctions to Natives, the views of the Lieutenant Governor agree generally with those of the President in Council expressed in Mr. Beadon's letter of the 3rd September 1858, to His Excellency the Governor General.

5. The Lieutenant Governor has not very maturely considered the question; but on the eight points noted in that letter as requiring to be determined, the following are the views he is at present inclined to take:

1. Whether there should be any, and if any, what change in the titles now given?
2. Whether there should be any, and if any, what additional titles and honorary distinctions?

6. The Lieutenant Governor thinks that new titles should be introduced, applicable to persons of all persuasions. At present the only Indian titles are such as are applicable to Hindoos exclusively, and such as are applicable to Mahomedans exclusively. There are none that could be granted to a Parsee, for example, or to an Armenian, or any other Christian. The Lieutenant Governor can see no reason, however, for any change in the designation of existing titles, and no reason for ceasing to confer titles under the existing forms in suitable cases.

7. But he is of opinion that the new titles should have rank assigned to them relatively with the old Indian titles: and if it should be possible for rank also to be assigned to them relatively with English titles and honors, he thinks a great advantage would be gained.

3. Whether the bestowal of titles should be accompanied by any, and if any, by what decorations or substantial advantages or both.

8. On the third point, the Lieutenant Governor thinks that decorations such as would be suitable when worn in full dress with any costume, should accompany the titles. He does not think that the titles should be associated with any pecuniary allowance. But he thinks that the highest, or if there are several, the higher of them, when hereditary, might confer by law the privilege of establishing a Majorat, by deed having the effect of an entail. Where Government confers a reward, when it grants a hereditary title, it should, the Lieutenant Governor thinks, be attached to the title as a distinct grace.

4. Whether titles should be in any case hereditary.

9. On the fourth point, the Lieutenant Governor thinks there should be two classes of titles, hereditary and not hereditary; the former to be granted only to persons of wealth and of a high social position in Native Society.

5. Whether the same title should be granted for social position, for long good conduct, and for special service, or whether they should be different.

10. With reference to the fifth point, the Lieutenant Governor thinks the above consideration should regulate the class.

6. Whether there should be one or more than one order, and whether in each order the number of titles of each grade or class should be limited or unlimited.

11. In regard to the sixth point, several orders seem to the Lieutenant Governor preferable to several grades in one order. Orders intended to honor public services are, he thinks, more valuable when limited; but a limitation to a certain number of new grants yearly, or after stated periods, seems to him preferable to dependency on death vacancies.

7. Whether the Governments of Bombay and Madras should continue to exercise the power of conferring titles and distinctions, or whether the power throughout India should be confined to the Governor General in Council.

12. On the seventh point, the Lieutenant Governor thinks that the Viceroy alone should have power to confer Indian titles.

8. Whether the highest titles, especially those which it may be thought proper to reserve for the Chiefs and dependent and feudatory States, should not be granted by the Crown, on the recommendation of the Governor General in Council.

13. On the eighth point he is inclined to think that the least inconvenient course would be if the distinction between Imperial and Indian titles were marked, in all cases, by making the Viceroy the highest source of the latter. But the question strikes the Lieutenant Governor as open to doubt.

14. It is an unsettled point whether the ancient title of Rajah, in Bengal, is hereditary as a matter of right or not. In practice it is, and will always be so treated by the people. The question requires an authoritative settlement.

15. The question of the relative rank of the holders of existing titles also requires settlement. The Lieutenant Governor thinks whenever the holder has effectively succeeded to an old title, his rank should date from the original grant.

I have, &c.,

have been conferred by Government in the under-mentioned Divisions.

Why bestowed, whether for service or on succession, or otherwise.	If on succession, date on which similar Title was first bestowed on the family by British Government.	REMARKS.
On succession.	In 1770 A. D., exact date not known.	Grandson of Moharajah Kullean Sing (son of Moharajah Shetab Roy), formerly Nazim or Soobah of Behar. Held in the highest respect by the Native community, and has always been allowed the first seat in all Durbars.
Ditto.	12th October 1781 A. D.	This is a very ancient family, said to have had its origin from Rajah Vikramajeet. The present Moharajah is considered by the people to be wanting in soldierly character. This, coupled with the dread of his popular rival Kooer Sing, was perhaps the cause of his lukewarmness at the first breaking out of the mutiny in Shahabad.
Ditto.	In December 1790 A. D.	The Moharajah has a very high character, and he is held in the highest estimation by the Native community. The family is a very ancient one.
Ditto.	In 1815, particular date not known.	This Moharajah being by caste a Brahmin, is held in great respect by the Native community.
Ditto.	Not known, the Records of the Behar Collectorate having been destroyed.	This Moharajah is not popular with the Native community.
Ditto.	1st September 1858.	The feelings of the Native community are in favor of the Moharajah.
Held the Title of Rajah in succession, but that of Moharajah Bahadoor was lately bestowed for good services to the State.	He is the first Moharajah, but on succession as Rajah, date of which is not known owing to destruction of Records.	The feelings of the Native community are in favor of the Moharajah. This Moharajah rendered conspicuous service to the State during the late disturbances, and has been rewarded with a Jagheer of Rupees 10,000 per annum.
On succession.	The Title was originally bestowed on Moharajah Dhiraj Tilock Chunder, Bahadoor, under orders of Nozoobodowlah Khan on the 11th Shaharoojumah Mobaruck of the 9th Mloosh of his reign.	The Title is recognized by Government.
Bestowed on succession.	The Title of Moharajah Juggut Indro Bahadoor was conferred upon the elder brother of this person on the 12th June 1829.	Nittanund, father of the present Moharajah, received the Title of "Moharajah Ameerol Molk Azmut, Dewla Juggut Indro Danish Mund Bahadoor Seepaheedar Jung" from the Emperor of Delhi. By means of this firman as well as good services, the Title of "Moharajah Bahadoor" was conferred upon Bunwaree Loll, eldest son of Nittanund, during the administration of Lord William Bentinck. Bunwaree Loll dying childless, his younger brother, the present Moharajah, has been invested with the above Title as his successor.

Moharajah Juggernath Sahee Deo.	Moharajah "Shahamut, Awalee Murtubut, Obehut, Jalalut, Munzullut."	Lohurdugga, Palkote.	Zeminder.	In 1821, exact date not ascertainable.
Moharajah Indurjeet Singh Deo.	Moharajah "Rufut Awalee Punnha."	Political District of Sirgoojah, Bisrampore.	Tributary Chief.	25th March 185?, (Government Order No. 45), with Khillut in recognition of his succession to the "Raj of Sirgoojah."

Why bestowed, whether for service or on succession, or otherwise.	If on succession, date on which similar Title was first bestowed on the family by British Government.	Remarks.
On succession to his father.	27th July 1848.
Succession.	1827 A. D.
Loyalty and good service during the mutinies and rebellion in 1857-58-59.	Blank.	The Rajah of Mohurbhunj has all along been recognized as a Rajah by the Government and Local Authorities, his Title being derived from a period anterior to his coming under the authority of the British Government. The Supreme Government has recently decided on his elevation to be Moharajah.
Ditto.	Ditto.	The same remarks apply to the Keonjhur Rajah.
Not bestowed, but acquired on succession without confirmation of Government.	From a letter of Captain Jacob Camac, dated 23rd January 1772, to George Vansittart, Esquire, Chief on the Council of Revenue, it appears that the Government recognized the Title of Dirpnauth Sahee, grandfather of the present Moharajah, and invested him with a Khillut to the exclusion of the claim of a pretender to the "Raj" in the person of one Nana Sao, who styled himself "Moharajah Omrao Sao Deo."	There is no document extant to show when this Title was first acquired or bestowed. It is said to have been enjoyed long previous to the accession of the British Government. On this point Mr. Davidson, the Principal Assistant, in his letter to Colonel Ouseley, Governor General's Agent, No. 247, dated 29th August 1839, paragraph 2, observes that, "the Moondahs originally cleared the country and brought it into cultivation. There was no Rajah of the whole country which was divided into Purhas (patches) of from 15 to 20 or 25 villages each under a Rajah. It is impossible now to say what these Rajahs received from their subjects, most probably only assistance in War and 'Salamee' at festivals. Finding, I suppose, that this system of managing the country by means of so many Rajahs did not answer, the Moondahs elected the ancestor of the present Palkote family to the 'Raj' of the whole country, since which 62 Rajahs of that family are stated to have sat on the 'Guddy,' with a few adoptions in the same family. The Rajah's family and friends pretend they were Rajpoots at the time of the election, but there can be no doubt that their ancestor was a Moondah, and the family prospering, they managed by force to get married into the Rajpoot families of Pachete and Singbhoom, and eventually into others, and now pass for as good Rajpoots as any in India." Captain Davies adds the Title "was, he (the Moharajah) asserts, recognized both by the King of Delhi and subsequently by the English Government, but owing to the destruction of his old records during the Marhatta disturbances, he is unable to produce any documents in support of his statement, still his Title has always been recognized by the Government and the Authorities, and should, I am of opinion, still be so, as he has an immense Zemindaree, and is a person of much local influence."
On succession.	15th June 1820, Vide next column.	On the abdication of Ranee Bishoon Koonwaree, the Government invested Loll Ummer Singh, father of the present incumbent, with a Khillut and Title, and placed him on the vacant "Raj" of Sirgoojah. The original Titles of this family are said to have been bestowed by the Marhatta Government.

Rajah Rajnarain Roy, Bahadoor (deceased).	Rajah Bahadoor.	Andool, Zillah Hooghly.	Ditto.	18th May 1835.

Why bestowed, whether for service or on succession, or otherwise.	If on succession, date on which similar Title was first bestowed on the family by British Government.	REMARKS.
On Succession.	Recognized on succession by Sunnud granted in 1821.	This is an hereditary Title, which was bestowed long previous to the British accession. It was confirmed to the present holder by the Government on the 9th of September 1848, on his investiture with a Khillut.
Ditto.	Similar Title first bestowed in "Magh" 1829, Sumbut, corresponding with January 1773 A .D., exact date not ascertainable.	Lieutenant Colonel Simpson, Principal Assistant Commissioner, observes—" The present Ramgurh family claim relationship with the Rajah " Mokoond Sing, who was turned out on the accession of the British " to the country. They state his family held Sunnuds from the 'Padsha' " of Delhi, and obtained possessions in Ramgurh 1,000 years ago. The " Sunnuds of the Emperor, they state, were burned in Moharajah " Muninath Singh's time some 50 years ago, but as far as I can gather " from the history of the Estate, Thakoor Tez Sing was a very distant " relation (if of the same family) of the former Rajah Mokoond Sing, " and on one occasion had command of the Rajah's Troops and joined " Captain Camac, on his first acquiring Military authority in this part of " the country. The original Moharajah Mokoond Sing's family, from " old inscriptions on Temples, &c. &c., I examined many years ago, ap- " peared to have had possession of the Estate about 200 years."
On succession and for good services during the late disturbances.	Not known.	The Title of Rajah was enjoyed by the uncle of the present Rajah, see Government Order No. 229, dated 9th June, 1859. The family is a branch of that of the Bettiah Moharajah.
For services during the late disturbances.	Ditto.	This Title was conferred upon Rughoo Nundun Sing, by the Government of India, on the 27th May 1859, in consideration of the zealous services rendered by him from the commencement of the disturbance. A Khillut was also granted to his brother Baboo Hur Prokash Narain Sing, who behaved well on the occasion of the outbreak.
On succession to his father.	Title of Rajah Bahadoor and Khillut bestowed on the grandfather of the present Rajah in A. D. 1811.	This Title was conferred by the Government of India, on the 8th December 1851, on Lelanund Sing's succeeding to the Estates of his late father Rajah Biddianund Sing of Purneah.
For services rendered during the Sontal Insurrection.	... ...	The Title of Rajah was conferred by the Government of India, on the 30th January 1856, on Joy Mungul Sing, Zemindar in the district of Monghyr, in consideration of the services rendered by him during the late Sonthal disturbances.
On succession.	18th May 1835.	It is stated by the claimant himself that Ram Churn Roy was a Dewan of the Governor General of India, and he received the Honorary Title of Rajah Bahadoor with a Khillut. His son Ramlochun enjoyed the same Title. Kassinath, son of the latter, also enjoyed the Title, and both of them received Khilluts. Rajnarain Roy, son of Kassinath Roy, enjoyed the above Title, and received Khillut from Lord Auckland, the Governor General, in 1835, see Government Gazette, 18th May 1835, and was allowed to keep a guard of Sepoys. His son Koowar Bejoy Kessub has not yet received a Khillut. He is yet a minor.

Why bestowed, whether for service or on succession or otherwise.	If on succession, date on which similar Title was first bestowed on the family by British Government.	REMARKS.
On succession.	11th January 1842.	In the (Hajira 28th) year 1198, and in the 25th year of the Emperor Shah Alum's reign, the Prince Regent or Uliahud Mirza Jehander Shah conferred the Title of Moharajah Bahadoor on Joynarain Ghosaul with other honorary distinctions. On his demise his son Kally Sunker Ghosaul succeeded to the same and received the confirmation of the British Government under the Title of Rajah Bahadoor, and Sutt Churn Ghosaul, son of Kally Sunker Ghosaul, and brother to the present incumbent, had succeeded to that Title on the 11th January 1842.
Title of Rajah obtained on succession. Title of Bahadoor bestowed for service.	Obtained the Title of Rajah on succession, but there is nothing on record whether this Title was bestowed by the British Government or not.	The Title of Rajah and Bahadoor with a Khillut was conferred by the Government of India, on the 15th September, 1858, on Burrodakant Roy of Jessore, for the assistance given by him in supplying cattle, &c. to the Superintendent at Raneegunge, and for his attachment to the British Government.

Also to the Talchere Rajah who received the Title of "Mohendro Bahadoor" only on the 13th May 1848, for his loyalty and good service at the time of the Ungool Rajah's rebellion. Had there been any doubts then as to his being a Rajah of right, no doubt his elevation to that rank would have been then proposed, the title conferred on him being in addition to that of Rajah.
On succession.	14th August 1812.	After the death of Rajah Bahadoor Sing, son of Rajah Deby Sing, the British Government was pleased to confer the hereditary Title of Rajah Bahadoor on his son Oodoomunt Sing, on whose demise the Title was confirmed to Kishen Chund, the father of the present Rajah.

On succession 13th August 1833.	...	All the Districts called the "Gurhjat Mehals" or Political Estates of the South-Western Frontier were, previous to their cession to the British by the Mahratta Government in 1818, governed each by its own Rajah who paid tribute as a vassal either to the Maharajah of Sumbulpore or that of Sirgoojah. In 1821 all these Tributary Chiefs received Sunnuds recognizing the Titles they had enjoyed previous to the cession alluded to and leaving to them "the independent exercise of their constitutional powers."

conferred upon them by the British Government, required by paragraph 4 of the India, Foreign Department, to the Secretary to the Government of Bengal.

Why bestowed, whether for service or on succession, or otherwise.	If on succession, date on which similar Title was first bestowed on the family by British Government.	REMARKS.
...	...	The grand-father assumed the Title.
...	...	States that the Title of Rajah was awarded by the Mahomedan Government to one of his ancestors by name Hurunder Singh, and after him seven successive generations have held it unmolested; but it is impossible now to say how Rajah Hurunder Singh acquired the Title. That Rajah Kishen Singh, the grand-father of Oodit Narain, was awarded a Khillut by the British Government, after him his son Mudun Mohun Singh, and then the present Rajah succeeded to the Title. There are however no records in existence to testify to the above, as the documents of the family it is said has been stolen or accidentally burnt. The distinction of address claimed is Resfient Ali Murtubent and the Title Rajah.
...	...	This person's grand-father and uncle received (each of them) the Title of Rajah; all his landed property has been sold for arrears of revenue, but he still calls himself a Rajah, although reduced to poverty.
...	...	This gentleman holds a large estate, and is of the same family as Rajah Joymungul Singh.
...	...	This person is entered in the Beerbhoom Collectorate books as Rajah, but this Title (it is beleived) is given out of courtesy, not because Baicunt Narain Singh ever had it bestowed on him by Government.
...	...	Pretends to the rank of Rajah, but is entered in the Beerbhoom Collectorate books and is addressed in all Pergunnahs, &c. as Zemindar only.
...	...	It is said that before the advent of the British Government in India, the Title had been bestowed on the family, and that it was renewed by the British Government; the Sunnuds having been lost in the late Sonthal insurrection (as is affirmed), the Zemindar cannot give their dates.
...	...	Wife of the above. The same remark as above about the Titles and Sunnuds.
...	...	Wife of the late Soi-disant Rajah Ram Chunder Sahee. The remark immediately before the last is also applicable to this case.

Why bestowed, whether for service or on succession or otherwise.	If on succession, date on which similar Title was first bestowed on the family by British Government.	Remarks.
...	...	Has no claim to the Title.
...	...	Ditto ditto.
...	...	From an examination of the papers submitted by the Zemindar it appears that his family have had an independent estate, and have enjoyed the Title of Rajah for many generations, and from a decree of the Provincial Court of Moorshedabad, dated 18th February 1819, it seems that the estate and Title were held by the Hendweh Zemindars previous to the Company's succession to the Dewanee. It therefore appears that the title of Rajah must have been conferred on the Hendweh Zemindars by some of the Native Governments of Bengal, but no documents exist which absolutely prove this.
...	...	The family claim to have enjoyed the title of Rajah for fourteen generations. They assert that all their papers, Sunnuds, &c. were lost in the Sonthal rebellion. There is no reason to doubt the truth of their statements, and probably a reference to the Rajah of Burdwan might throw some light on the subject, as it is believed that the estate of Nunkur Mulhatee was originally part of the Burdwan estates.
...	...	The family are Pahareeas, and have been styled Rajahs for several generations, but no documents exist in the office of the Bhaugulpore Collectorate to show that they have ever had any right whatever to the title, nor have they themselves produced any.
...	...	* Her estate, that is,—she resides at Patna, and claims her title in virtue of being the widow of Igbal Ali Khan, late Rajah of Khurruckpoor, created Maharajah (and Bahadoor) by the Governor General, 29th July 1825.
...	...	His ancestors were the Zemindars of Pergunnah Bishenpore and he is now on receipt of a pension from Government.

Why bestowed, whether for service or on succession or otherwise.	If on succession, date on which similar Title was first bestowed on the family by British Government.	Remarks.
...	...	The Zemindar of Mularia asserts that the Title of Rajah was conferred on his ancestors by the Nowab of Moorshedabad, but the document conferring it has, he says, been lost during an insurrection. There is nothing from Government to shew that he has any right to the Title of Rajah, although in some public Perwannahs both he and his predecessors have been addressed as Rajah. He is reported to bear an excellent character, and to hold a respectable position in Society.
...	...	Has not sent any papers confirmatory of his Title.
...	...	This person is a minor, no Title was conferred upon him or his predecessor by Government. The whole of the Zemindary of Chukla Beerbhoom belonged to his ancestors; on the accession of the Company's rule, Chukla Beerbhoom was settled with his predecessor. In a Perwanna which was issued to a former Rajah regarding this statement, he was addressed as Rajah Bahadoor. In another Perwanna addressed to the father of the minor on the occasion of the settlement of Deogur, he was addressed as Rajah Bahadoor. The family of this person is very respectable.
...	...	There is no document to show that such a style of address was ever recognized by Government.
...	...	None of the family were endowed with any regular Title.
...	...	No proof or right to any Title, certainly not to such an absurd and blasphemous one as this.
...	...	Has extensive Zemindaries in the districts of Hooghly and 24-Pergunnahs
...	...	The ancestors of the husband of the present Zemindar were addressed by the Courts by the Title of Rajah, but there is no proof whatever of right to any Title. The present Zemindar is reported to be a woman of good repute.

Why bestowed, whether for service or on succession or otherwise.	If on succession, date on which similiar Title was first bestowed on the family by British Government.	REMARKS.
...	...	Two perwannahs of 180[illegible] and 1816, produced by the Zemindars, shew that Ram Chunder Sen, Roy, their great grandfather, was addressed by the Title of Roy, but no recognition on the part of Government is shewn.
...	...	The claimants have produced a perwannah of the Superintendent of Police dated 5th January 1839, by which the Title would seem to have been granted to their father Chukooram Sing, by the Governor General in Council, but no mention is made that the Title should be hereditary.
On succession.	...	It does not appear that this Title was bestowed or recognized by British Government. The claimant states that in 1854, his house was attacked by Heeralall Seal of Calcutta, and a great many valuable papers destroyed, which renders it impossible for him to file any now in support of his Title. He also files a copy of a letter from the Salt Agent of Tumlook, to the address of the Collector of the Salt Districts, Fort William, dated 13th March 1787, by which it appears that the Title was recognized by courtesy at least in the year 1172, Villarty era, the letter is too long to extract. In the Kuboolyut given by the claimant at the time of the Decennial Settlement, the Title of Ranee is inserted against the name of Janokee, ancestress of the claimant.
Bestowed by Shah Jehan, the King of Delhi. The present claimant claims by succession.	...	The Title does not appear to have been recognized by the British Government. The present claimant files three Perwannahs, one of Shah Jehan, and the others apparently by some Moosulman Sovereigns, whose names cannot be deciphered, in which the ancestors of the present claimant are addressd by the Title of Rajah. In the Decennial Settlement papers the Title of Sree Chundun has also been accorded to the family.
The present claimant's ancestor Goverdhun Mundle, a favorite of Deb Rajah of Oorissa, killed a tiger by blows of his fist, for this feat he received the Zemindaree and the Titles. The present claimant claims by succession.	...	These Titles do not appear to have been recognized by the British Government. The present claimant files three Perwannahs of different authorities of this District, bearing dates between 1783-86, in which the family was styled Rajah. The family was styled Babooboobund in the Kuboolyut of the Decennial Settlement: a Koorseenamah however appears to exist in the English Office, in which the Titles of Rajah and Babooboobund of the family are inserted.
Reason not known. The present claimant claims by succession.	...	The Titles does not appear to have been recognized by the British Government, but it has always been accorded in all official proceedings issued from his office.
Ditto.	...	Ditto ditto.—This claimant being of the same family has obtained half share of the estate by a decree of the Sudder Dewanny Adawlut, and therefore claims the Title.

Why bestowed, whether for service or on succession, or otherwise.	If on succession, date on which similar Title was first bestowed on the family by British Government.	REMARKS.
Granted by Mr. Higginson to the claimant's ancestor Rajah Surroop Narain Subasroy, for assistance rendered to Government in some disturbance. The present claimant holds by succession.	...	The Title does not appear to have been recognized by the British Government. In the papers of the Decennial Settlement, the Title is accorded to the family. Deeds said to be destroyed.
On Succession.	...	It does not appear by what Government these titles were bestowed on the family, but the present claimant states that they have been held by the family for 13 generations. He files a Perwannah granted by the Criminal Authority of Midnapore, under date the 16th February 1808, by which the Criminal Jurisdictions of his Zemindaree were exclusively entrusted to the family, and in which the title of Rajah was addressed. In the official papers this title has always been accorded to the family.
Ditto.	...	It does not appear by what Government these titles were bestowed on the family. The present claimant has not filed any documents, but states that the titles were bestowed by the English Government upon his ancestor Rajah Nundlall Sing, for assistance rendered by him to Government against the Chowars. In the papers of the Decennial Settlement the title of Subasroy only is inserted.
Ditto.	...	It does not appear by what Government these titles were bestowed on the family. The present claimant does not file any document, but states that the title of Rajah was conferred on his ancestor Pursooram Sing, by Captain Cowper, when the country was conquered by the British Government in the year 1211 Umlee, and the title of Maundhata was bestowed by Deb Rajah of Orissa.
Ditto.	...	It does not appear by what Government the title was bestowed on the family. The present claimant does not file any document, but states that his ancestor Rajnarain Paul obtained the title from the Nawab, for good conduct in some disturbance.
Ditto "Chowdry"	...	The claimant files copies of two Sunnuds granted by the King and Nawab, dated 17th Shubur, Shabun Juloas 7th and 9th Shubur Jumadeeoossanee Juloos 2nd, conferring respectively the title of Chowdry on Hurray Kisto Chowdry of Pergunnah Dantoonchour, the ancestor of the claimant; he also files a copy of a Sunnud from the Deb Rajah of Orissa, dated 2nd Unko, 19th Koombhoo, bestowing on the claimant the title of Rajah. The claimant's name is registered in the mutation book of this office with the titles of Rajah and Chowdry.
...	...	It does not appear by what Government these Titles were bestowed on the family. The present claimant does not give any proof.
On succession.	...	The present claimant does not file any document, but states that his ancestor Omaputty Bhutto obtained the Title from the Deb Rajah of Orissa, for founding the Town of Bramanbhoom.
Bestowed by the Nuwab to Rajah Mohindro Narain Roy, the ancestor of the present claimant, also claims on succession.	...	The claimant's ancestor Debendro Narain Roy, with whom a settlement of the Zemindaree was made by the Board of Revenue as per authenticated copies of letters filed, bearing dates 2nd and 23rd December 1794, is addressed by the Title of Rajah in the papers relative to this transaction. The present claimant also files Perwannas in which he is addressed by the title; he has no Government recognition.

Why bestowed, whether for service or on succession, or otherwise.	If on succession, date on which similar Title was first bestowed on the family by British Government.	REMARKS.
These climants are all descended from their maternal grandfather, Rajah Jadubram Roy, who is said to have received his Title from the Deb Rajah of Orissa. They state that this Title was confirmed to his son's wife Ranee Soogundha by British Government, and when that branch of the family became extinct, the present proprietors succeeded jointly to the family estates with which they claim to hold the family Titles.	...	It does not appear that this Title was bestowed or recognized by the British Government. The claimants exhibit an authenticated copy of letter of the Revenue Board, dated 26th June 1801, confirming the settlement of the estate with Ranee Soogundha, daughter-in-law of Rajah Jadubram Roy, the original holder. The Sunnud conferring the Title is said to have been destroyed by fire in the Umlee year 1224. It appears that in a Koorseenamah now in the Record room of this Office, Jadubram Roy was styled with the Title of Chowdoree " only."
The Title of Sudder Chowdry granted by King Shah Allum, and confirmed subsequently by the British Government. The claimant claims the Title of Chowdry on succession.	4th September, 1775.	The claimant's Title of Sudder Chowdry has been unquestionably recognized by the British Government, as per original Perwannah exhibited. But the Title of Rajah seems to have been assumed without any claim whatsoever.
Said to have been granted directly to the present incumbent. No cause assigned. ...	...	The claimant states that his Titles were recognized by the Governor General's Agent at Moorshedabad. He also files a Namjaree Rubokaree of the 8th December 1856, in which he is addressed by the Titles claimed. No sunnud of Government exhibited.
Said to have been conferred on his ancestor Ram Chunder Khan Roy Mohasoy by the Mahomedan Government, as a reward for faithful discharge of the office of Kanangoe. The claimant claims on succession.	...	The claimant files a proceeding of the Midnapore consultation dated 6th June 1774, in which his ancestor Rajnarain Roy is addressed by the Title of Roy. It does not appear that the Title of Mohasoy was recognized by the British Government.
Ditto.	...	The above remarks are applicable to this person, he being a descendant of the same family. This claimant files authenticated copies of letters of the Collector to Revenue Board, dated 4th July 1828, and Boards reply dated 15th August following, in which the ancestor of the present claimant was styled " Roy Mohasoy." In the Settlement papers, as well as in the Mutation Register, this Title is inserted.

...	...	Governor of Gowhattee, Buddun Chundro Bor Phookun, under the apprehension that Poornomunt Boorah Gohain (Prime Minister of the King of Jorehaut) had some designs on his life, fled from Gowhatty in 1736, S. A. (1815, A. D.), and having reached Calcutta applied to the British Government for Military aid, in order to be able to cope with his opponent the Prime Minister. Being unsuccessful, he went to the King of Burmah, and obtained from him a small Army, with which he returned to Assam over the Putkye Hills, on the Eastern Frontier. In Cheyt 1738, S. A. (March 1817, A. D.) he and his invading force reached Jorehaut, but the Prime Minister having died a few days previously, he seized and killed all his real or supposed enemies, except those of the Brahmin caste, who (being sacred according to the Hindoos) had their eyes gouged out. Shortly after this Buddun Chundro Bor Phokun was assassinated by Roop Sing Soubadar at the instigation of Rajah Chundro Kanth Sing. Then occurred the two Burmese invasion when they took possession of the country in 1740, S. A. (1819, A. D.). Peelha Bor Phookun (son of Buddun Chunder Bor Phokun) was hung by Captain Niewfuille, Junior Assistant Commissioner of Jorehaut, in 1752, A. S. (1830, A. D.) for raising a rebellion against the British Government. Shortly after the Province had been conquered from the Burmese, the Title then became extinct. After Buddun Chundro came the following Bor Phokuns, viz. 1 Ghonsam, 2 Neergoon (son of Ghonsam) Gogoee, 4 Jonmee (son of Buddun Chundro Bor Phokun), 5 Bodro Chundro, 6 Lomboodor, 7 Bapooram, 8 Peallee (who was hung as stated above).

Why bestowed, whether for service or on succession or otherwise.	If on succession, date on which similar Title was first bestowed on the family by British Government.	REMARKS.
...	...	One of the ancestors of this landholder received a Perwannah from Captain Carnac, for services done during the Palamow disturbances in 1771, A. D., in which the addressee is styled "Rajah."
...	...	The Title of Rajah to this family appears to have been first recognized in a Pattah dated 25th March 1790, A. D.
...	...	The first Sunnud for this Guddee granted by Government to one of the ancestors of the present incumbent is dated 8th November 1780, in which he was styled Rajah.
...	...	This landholder asserts that the Title of Rajah has been enjoyed by his family for more than 1,000 years, and that he himself holds a Sunnud for Godie Serampore from the Collector of Zillah Ramgurh dated 8th November 1780, in which he is styled Rajah. He is however addressed as Rajah by the Local Courts.
...	...	This district originally belonged to the Jungle Mehals, and the Title was apparently bestowed previous to the British accession. The present Zemindar cannot produce any document concerning the grant of the title.
...	...	This Title of "Rajah" is assumed by this landholder as an hereditary prescriptive right, but it is not recognized by the Local Authorities in any other way than by receiving petitions signed by him under the assumed Title of Rajah. He has not produced any document in support of his right to assume the Title.
...	...	Ditto ditto. This Zemindar is reported to have done good services after the Mutiny of the Ramgurh Battalion.
...	...	All that is ascertainable regarding this Title is that Kullunder Singh, at the recommendation of Captain Wilkinson, Political Agent, succeeded Musst. Taj Koomaree Dewanni in 1833, and in 1834 Kullunder Singh was constituted Rajah by Moharajah Narrain Singh of Sumbulpore, and has always been recognized as such by the Local Authorities, and I recommend that the Title be acknowledged by Government.
...	...	The Title of Rajah was originally bestowed on this family by the Moharajah of Chota Nagpore, who confirms the Title at each succession. The present holder has not had his Title conferred on him by the Moharajah who styles him "Purdhan."
...	...	The above remarks apply to this landholder also, who is styled by the Moharajah of Chota Nagpore as "Tekait."
...	...	The Title holder states that for 53 generations the Title of Rajah has been enjoyed by his family, but no satisfactory proofs have been given to establish his right. The Moharajah of Ramgurh asserts that the Title of Rajah was given to this family when some of his ancestors intermarried with the Bursote family.
...	...	This Zemindar states that the Title of Rajah was conferred on his family by the Emperor Aurungzebe, and that one of his ancestors was addressed as Rajah in a Perwannah from the Collector of Ramgurh dated 5th December 1781. The family is of ancient standing, and has always been addressed as "Rajah" by the Local Authorities.
...	...	Ditto Ditto Ditto.
...	...	This family seems to have been styled Rajah by the Native Government as proved by a Sunnud of Kamdar Khan, dated 1163, F. S., and the Title appears to have been continued as is evident from a Perwannah dated 20th June 1835.

Why bestowed, whether for service or on succession or otherwise.	If on succession, date on which similar Title was first bestowed on the family by British Government.	Remarks.
...	...	This Title is stated to be hereditary. Lieutenant Colonel Simpson states that these Rajahs are no doubt of old standing, and appear to have been always addressed as such in Perwannahs from his Office.
...	...	The ancestors of this landholder are said to have been formerly styled Rajahs of Pergunnah Goomo, but they lost their estate prior to the accession of the British Government. The Principal Assistant states that the style of address is not traceable in his Office, as no occasion appears to have arisen for addressing him publicly.

No. 4.

From Major E. K. Elliot, Commissioner of Nagpore, to C. Beadon, Esquire, Secretary to the Government of India, Foreign Department, No. 65, dated the 21st May, 1860.

From Officiating Secretary to Government, Foreign Department, No. 3029, dated 3rd September 1858, with an Enclosure from the Madras Government, No. 446, dated 14th July 1858.

From the Secretary to the Government of India, Foreign Department, with the Governor General, No. 3048, dated 25th May 1859.

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your Circular letter No. 3049, under date the 25th of May 1859, transmitting copies of the papers noted in the margin, respecting the grant of Titles and Honorary Distinctions to Natives and Native Chiefs of India, and requesting to be furnished with any suggestions on the subject, for the information of the Supreme Government.

2. I have also to acknowledge the receipt of your subsequent Circular letter No. 3841, under date the 28th of June last, calling for a complete and carefully prepared return of the Titles and Honorary Distinctions which have been conferred by the British Government on Native Chiefs and others within this territory, arranging them in the order in which they should stand, and furnishing at the same time a list of persons residing within this Province claiming or assuming Titles or Distinctions which have not been conferred upon them by the British Government, and to which consequently they have no recognised right.

Circular No. 5877, dated 23rd September 1859.
No. 1083, dated 26th March 1860.
No. 1475, dated 25th April 1860.

3. I have further to acknowledge the receipt of the letters quoted in the margin, calling for replies to the foregoing Circulars. In reply I have the honor to express my extreme regret that such delay should have occurred in disposing of this reference, the more so, as I am now unable to do more than submit the lists which have been called for.

No. 1.

No. 1 is a list of Titles and Distinctions conferred by the British Government on Natives, or Native Chiefs, residing within the Nagpore Territory. The list contains but three names, No. 1 being the adopted son of the widows of the late ruler of this Province. No. 2, Mahomed Tufussool Hoossain Khan, and No. 3, a Banker, residing in the Military Cantonment of Kamptee; Bunsee Lall Abeer Chund, upon whom was conferred the Title of Rae Bahadoor in the month of November last.

4. I have placed them in the list in the order in which they should in my opinion stand.

5. The other list contains but few names. It comprises those who claim or assume to themselves Titles or Honorary Distinctions.

No. 2.

6. In the Nagpore District, there is the Gond Rajah Suleeman Shah, the representative of the former rulers of Deogurh, who also obtained the Mahomedan Title of Shah from Delhi in former days, and in the Chandah District there are the representatives of the former rulers of Chandah, also Gonds, claiming the Title of Rajah, to which by prescriptive right and long usage they are entitled.

7. In the Nagpore District, there is also a son of the late Mahomed Sudeeq Ali Khan, upon whom was conferred the Title of Nuwab by the 1st Rughojee, in recognition of valuable military service.

8. There are no titled persons, either in the Bhundarah or Chindwarrah Districts; but amongst the dependencies of Chuttees-gurh (Raepore) are the Rajahs of Bustar, Karoudh, and Kaker—very little information is afforded by the Deputy Commissioner in regard to their Titles. They were recognized by the late rulers of this country, and have long been in existence. There is I believe some connexion between the Rajah of Bustar and the Rewah family. Further particulars will be needed regarding these Titles before a correct table of precedence can be prepared for this Province.

9. The general question of Titles and Distinctions is undoubtedly one of very great importance. The Natives of India, amongst the higher classes, attach the utmost consequence to rank and position, and a well regulated system on the principles laid down in your letter of the 25th of May to the Government of Fort St. George, would be productive of the best results. The hands of the Supreme Government would, politically speaking, be materially strengthened, if the rank and position conferred upon persons of eminence or distinction, wealth or influence, were to admit them as members of a distinct class or body, forming a recognised institution of the Empire.

10. The recommendation of His Honor the President in Council, as contained in your letter No. 3029, of the 3rd September 1858, is well deserving of consideration. There are so many minor points to be discussed and determined in connection with the general question, that no better course could be followed than the appointment of a well selected Committee to frame a report on the subject.

11. I am not myself sufficiently well versed in such matters to be able to offer any suggestions of practical utility, though I feel assured of the advantage to be derived from the introduction of a well-matured plan for conferring appropriate honors and rewards on all classes of Her Majesty's Native subjects, as well for public services of whatever character rendered to the State, as for private benefits conferred on communities, or for other considerations, political, social, or commercial. The rules for regulating all such Honors and Titles, the mode and manner of their bestowal, with the many incidental details could only be properly prepared by men possessing an adequate knowledge of all such subjects as obtaining in other countries, with the ability to adapt their information to Indian manners, habits, and customs.

12. There are however one or two points respecting which there can be little doubt, and upon which in conclusion I venture to offer an opinion.

1st.—That all Titles and Distinctions to be bestowed on the Native subjects of the Queen should be conferred by the Viceroy and Governor General alone, as Her Majesty's representative in the Indian Empire.

2nd.—That Titular Princes should not be allowed to bestow Titles or Honorary Distinctions on their dependants, and—

3rd.—That the Princes and Chiefs of India, real or titular, should not be permitted to bestow Titles or Distinctions on Her Majesty's Native subjects who should be prohibited from receiving them without the consent of the Supreme Government.

I have, &c.,

No. 9.

From G. Couper, Esquire, Secretary to the Government of the North-Western Provinces, to the Secretary to the Government of India, in the Foreign Department, No. 617A, dated Nynee Tal, the 23rd June, 1860.

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your Office Circular No. 3049, dated the 25th May, 1859, forwarding correspondence respecting the grant of Titles and Honorary Distinctions to Natives and Native Chiefs of India, and requesting the opinion and suggestions of the Lieutenant Governor on the subject.

2. I am to express His Honor's regret that this subject, which was referred for his consideration in May 1859, should have been so long overlooked. The difficulties which beset His Honor at that period, the heavy labor which has since fallen upon him, and lastly the fact that the matter did not appear to press for disposal, will, His Honor trusts, be regarded as excusing the long delay which he is constrained to acknowledge.

3. The Lieutenant Governor now addresses himself to the subject without further preface.

In your letter to the Madras Government, No. 3049, dated 25th May, 1859, there are four principal points which call for notice:

1*st.*—The Titles which should be conferred.

2*nd.*—The rank and precedence accompanying each Title.

3*rd.*—The forms of address and prefixes to be used.

4*th.*—The classes of persons to whom, and the services for which, such Titles should be given.

To these perhaps may be added as points which demand consideration.

5*th.*—Whether Titles, or any particular class of Titles, shall be hereditary, and, if so, how provision shall be made for the due maintenance of the dignity.

6*th.*—Whether Titles, or any class of Titles, shall have attached to them a decoration, and what that decoration shall be.

7th.—Whether in case of all Titles it will or will not be proper to have a formal investiture.

4. Before proceeding to discuss these several points, I am to express His Honor's conviction that, among the classes of the population who are sufficiently educated and advanced in civilization to appreciate the distinctions of social life, Titles conferred by the British Government, carrying with them a fixed rank and precedence, and certain known privileges, will be highly valued, and will operate as a powerful incentive to loyalty and devotion in times of emergency, no less than to useful exertion and benevolent liberality in times of peace. The public feeling in these Provinces until lately was, His Honor is inclined to believe, very general that, in comparison with the action of Native Governments who were possibly too profuse, the British Government has been too chary of conferring dignities and distinctions on its subjects, whether for good service, or for intelligent and liberal promotion of valuable institutions and material improvements. It is admitted, as a consequence, that Titles emanating from the British Government are not only more valued than those granted by Native rulers, but that they elicit deference and respect to the holders in the Territories of Foreign States.

5. Such being the case, the importance of bringing the grant of Titles under proper regulation by carefully selecting the designations to be used, separating the Titles into classes, determining the rank, precedence, and privileges which shall attach to each, and laying down a few leading principles by which the conferment of Titles shall be guided, cannot be gainsayed.

6. But the subject as before remarked is difficult and intricate, and to establish such a system, as is desirable, calls for a more intimate knowledge of Native feeling, sentiment, and tradition all over India than any single European can be supposed to possess. Though it may be known to all that a Rajah will always take precedence of a Raee, it is not so easy to determine the rank, relatively to each other, of a Rajah and a Nawab, both of ancient family, while, supposing these two Titles, as they are, entirely or nearly equivalent, it is quite certain that a beggared Rajah and an affluent Nawab will be regarded with very different degrees of deference and respect by the Native population. It is requisite, not only to settle the relative rank and precedence of Titles, and the privileges attaching to each, but also to secure that those conferred by the British Government shall not be brought into contempt by the improvidence, or the vice, and consequent impoverishment of those who may receive them.

7. Having regard, then, to the intricate and complicated nature of the subject; to the condition (which seems to be essential) that whatever system may be established shall be applicable to all parts of India; and to the necessity of conforming that system to the feelings and sentiments and traditions of Her Majesty's Native subjects in all the Presidencies, the Lieutenant Governor would strongly recommend that a Committee be appointed to investigate the subject thoroughly, and to frame rules and regulations for the consideration of the Government of India. The Committee should be composed of competent persons, both European and Native, drawn from all parts of India: it should be duly recognized by the Government; and authorized to call on all the Officers of the Government for information, as well as to depute one or more of its members to make local inquiries, should that be found expedient. By these means a large body of information would be collected, and the Committee would be in a position to proceed with some confidence in the settlement of the numerous delicate points which will call for consideration.

8. I am now to offer such remarks and suggestions as occur to the Lieutenant Governor upon the several questions into which the subject has been divided.

9. First as to the Titles which shall hereafter be given.

10. His Honor is not prepared to recommend the abolition of the Native Titles, whether Hindoo or Mahomedan, which have come down to us from ancient days, and to which the people are attached by story, by tradition, and by national sentiment, but rather that they should be classified, and that certain distinctive privileges should be assigned to each class.

11. But before noticing this part of the subject further, I am to state His Honor's opinion that an "Order" having some English designation, and a suitable decoration attached to it, should be established. The number of members should be limited, admission to the "Order" should be granted only for pre-eminent service to the State, of a Political, Civil, or Military character; and the members of the "Order" should take precedence of all Maharajahs, Rajahs, Ameers, and Nawabs, who owe their Titles to the British Government, whether by original gift or subsequent recognition, excepting only those Native Nobles who are Sovereign Potentates, as Scindia and Holkar, or feudatory Chiefs exercising independent authority within their own territory, as e. g. the Maharajah of Puteeala, Rewah, Chirkaree, the Nawab of Rampore, and such like. These, His Honor thinks, or at the least a selected few, might be invited to become members of the Order. This will be gratifying to the Chiefs themselves, who will be proud of the decoration and of the privileges which the possession of it will confer; it will make the "Order" a higher object of ambition to the Native communities to be associated with the most distinguished Potentates and Chiefs of India, and to be placed, as it were, on a footing of equality with them in the estimation of the British Government.

12. The "Order" might not inappropriately receive the designation of "the Viceroy's Order of the Star," or "The Order of the Viceroy's Star," or something similar according to the decoration that may be devised. That some decoration should be attached to the "Order," His Honor considers essential; it will add to the attractions of the distinction, and will be proudly worn by every Native as the outward and visible sign of the honor which he has received from the British Government. Whatever may be the design, whether a Star, or a Cross (which would not perhaps be suitable), or a Belt, it should be such as to accord with Native ceremonial costume, and should be of substantial value, so as to form the principal article in the Khillut of investiture which is indispensable, in Native opinion, to the due performance of the ceremonials connected with the conferment of Titles.

13. Descending to particulars, the Lieutenant Governor would recommend that, the designation being " The Viceroy's Order of the Star," the decoration should be an Emerald and Diamond Star, with an orange ribbon to be worn across the breast, having attached to it the same pendant, which the ribbon of a K. C. B. carries.

14. His Honor is of opinion that admission to this Order should be viewed in the same light as admission to the Peerage for distinguished service; that on the death of a member, his eldest son should succeed, and so on; and that, if a member on his first admission should not possess the means of maintaining the dignity conferred upon him and his heirs in succession, a landed estate, yielding an income of Rupees 15,000 or 20,000 should be granted to him, subject to a quit rent of 10 per cent. on the value of the grant, and should be strictly entailed.

15. But in this country there is so little security against vice and improvidence, and so little guarantee that a son will follow in the footsteps of his father; the restraints, in short, of education, religion, and morality are so loose and ineffective, that, to prevent the " Order" being brought into contempt by the hereditary succession to it of unworthy persons, it would seem essential to retain in the hands of the Governor General in Council an absolute power of forbidding the succession, recalling the warrant with the insignia attached to it, and resuming the grant for sufficient reason shown and duly recorded.

16. Possibly it may be thought advisable that there should be different grades of this Order, as of the Bath; and to this His Honor sees no objection. The details could be arranged by the proposed Committee.

If this suggestion should be adopted, or any similar scheme should be devised, it will not be difficult for the Committee to settle the distinctive privileges which shall belong to the members of the " Order," but one of them should certainly be that every member, wherever he may be addressed on the part of Government, shall receive a letter, whether in the English or in the Native language, bearing the autograph of the Viceroy himself, or the Head of the Local Government as may be.

17. I am now to advert to the old Native Titles, which His Honor would be loath to abolish altogether.

9. Mirza Sahib.
10. Agha Sahib.
11. Aka Sahib.
12. Moulvee Sahib.

18. Those now in common use are given in the margin.

19. Of those applicable to Hindoos, His Honor believes the Titles of Maharana and Rana are almost exclusively confined to Rajpootana and the Hills, of which the Chiefs are for the most part pure Rajpoots, while those of Maharao, Rao, and Rawut are peculiar to Central India, being of Mahratta origin. These should all, His Honor thinks, be maintained as well as the time-honored Titles of Maharajadheraj, Maharajah, Rajah, and &c.; but should be distinctively conferred only on persons of that class who appreciate the significance of those Titles. So also with the Titles of Pundit, Seth, and Sah. The former is among the Hindoos much the same as L. L. D. is among Britons, and should be granted only for distinguished literary merit; while the two latter are ancient Native prefixes which can be appropriately conferred on none but members of the commercial classes.

20. The Lieutenant Governor would propose to strike out the Titles (so called) of Koonwur and Baboo. The first is generally assumed by the eldest son, or the collateral relative of a titled Hindoo, and does not descend, while the latter is taken by every Bengalee, and has about it a conventional taint, which makes it unsuitable for a Title of Honor. In these Provinces and the neighbourhood, it is true, the appellation of Baboo is an honorable one; there is, e. g. Baboo Roostum Sahae in Oude: there are or rather were (for they defected in the rebellion) the Baboos of Tighra, in Goruckpoor; but nevertheless the objection seems to His Honor to stand good, as a general objection, and he would not advise the retention of "Baboo" among the Titles to be hereafter granted by the British Government.

21. To the Mahomedan Titles, as they appear in the margin, the Lieutenant Governor can see no objection, and can suggest, at this moment, no addition.

22. The greatest difficulty, however, lies in the classification, and the determination of the relative rank and precedence of the Hindoo and Mahomedan Titles which may be included in the same class.

23. First, as to the classification, His Honor is inclined to advise that the Mahomedan Titles Nos. 1 to 5, and the Hindoo Titles Nos. 1 to 10, should be formed into the 1st class; that all these Titles, with the reservation suggested in paragraph 15th should be regarded as hereditary in direct descent; and that, when the first grantee may be a person without the means of supporting the dignity, a landed estate of value proportionate to the nature of the Title, but in no case exceeding Rupees 10,000 per annum should be entailed for the support of the Title, being subject to a quit rent of 10 per cent. on the value.

24. The Lieutenant Governor would not recommend any decoration for Titles of this class, it being his opinion that that should be confined to the "Viceroy's Order;" nor does he think that any limitation need be imposed on the number of members to be admitted into this class. The distinctive privileges which they should enjoy will be a matter for the consideration of the Committee that has been recommended, but perhaps to each might be presented, on his investiture, as part of the Khillut, a signet ring, bearing his new Title and his name, and having an inscription within the ring, as, e. g. "Presented by the British Government to Rajah—on his investiture, May 186–."

25. The remaining Titles Nos. 11 and 14 to 20 of the Hindoo, and Nos. 6 to 12 of the Mahomedan list might be included in the 2nd class. The Lieutenant Governor would hold all these to be personal to the grantee, not heritable as of right, but to be re-granted by the special favor of the Government, in cases of marked merit, to the eldest son of a deceased member of the class. There would be no need of a decoration, for the reason given in the preceding case, but it does appear to His Honor essential that a Title of this class should carry with it some substantial advantage, and this, not only because it is on general grounds incumbent upon the Government to take care that no Title conferred by its authority shall be suffered to fall into contempt, but because Titles of this class will for the most part be granted to persons in slender circumstances, who will stand in need of some assistance to support the honor which they may receive. A Muha Rawul, or a Rawul, a Sirdar or a Thakoor, clad in rustic garments, and plodding his way on foot to the Commissioner's or the Lieutenant Governor's Durbar, would not receive much deference from his brethren.

26. But, as the Titles of this class would be granted for life only, it would be inconvenient that the income to be attached to them should be granted in the permanent form of landed property, and the Lieutenant Governor would advise that a suitable stipend in money, payable half yearly, should be assigned for life to each member on his admission ; this consideration being confined, as in the case of the other Titles above noticed, to those persons who may be known to stand in need of it.

27. The privileges to be enjoyed by the members of this class, His Honor would leave to be determined by the Committee.

28. I am now to pass on to the 2nd of the points, which have been marked for consideration, viz. " the rank and precedence which shall accompany each Title," and this, as has been above observed, is a difficult part of the subject, which must be handled with great delicacy, and only after the fullest inquiry. It is not that there can be much doubt about the respective rank of a Maharajah and a Rao, but that it may be difficult to settle whether a Maharajah shall take precedence of a Maharana, or a Rana of a Rajah; and how an Ameer and a Nawab will stand relatively to a Maharana, and a Rajah; and so on. There will be, His Honor apprehends, various perplexities which it will not be easy to settle satisfactorily. The first step must be to determine the order of the several Titles, Hindoo and Mahomedan separately; then to fix their relation, the one to the other, bracketing those which are supposed to be equivalent; and afterwards to lay down rules by which the rank of persons holding equivalent Titles shall be guided, such as that the anterior date of the Patent shall give precedence; that a Nawab (as of Rampore), exercising authority within his territory, shall take precedence of a Rajah (as Kasheepore), or even of a Maharajah (as of Benares), who does not possess the same authority; that a Rajah, as of Oorcha, who is under treaty engagements with the British Government, shall take precedence of a Rajah (as of Nabha in the Cis-Sutlej States), whose relations to the British Government are regulated by Ikrarnamah or articles of agreement. In other cases the antiquity of the Title, and of the State to which it belongs, the salute attached to the Title, and other considerations of the like kind would probably influence the resolutions of the Committee on this head. This part of the subject, however, is full of perplexing difficulty, and requires to be very circumspectly and delicately treated. It calls for close inquiry and examination, and it is a duty which must be left to the decision of the mixed Committee which has been proposed.

29. The 3rd point relates to the forms of address and prefixes to be used. To these, the Lieutenant Governor believes, most Natives, and especially those of the learned and comparatively highly educated professions, attach as much importance (if not more) as they do to the Title itself, and there are few Europeans who are able to appreciate the niceties and values (so to speak) of such distinctions.

30. Those most commonly in use are all of Arabic derivation, and are, so far as His Honor's experience goes, used indiscriminately in connection with Hindoo as well as Mahomedan Titles. It is not long since prefixes of this kind were granted to the Maharajah of Putiala and the Rajahs of Jheend and Nabha. The Lieutenant Governor is not aware that in any ceremonial address to a Hindoo Chief, he has seen a Hindoo form of address or prefix employed, and His Honor can see no object to be gained by introducing them.

31. These prefixes, I am to observe, are capable of almost unlimited expansion from the copiousness and the genius of the language from which they are mostly derived; as will be seen on examination of the three Lists A, B, and C, which are submitted. A being a list of 95 prefixes applicable to all classes; B of 13, which are preferred by Mahomedan Literati and Religiosi; and C. of a few which are believed to be appropriate prefixes to Titles of Foreign Potentates and Nobility, as also a selection marked D of forms of address taken from the Durbar Book of this Government.

32. This collection may possibly prove useful, but His Honor does not feel himself competent to make a more minute classification than the above division indicates; or to define the degree in which one prefix may be supposed to carry with it higher honor than another; or to determine the relation which should be maintained between prefixes and Titles, or, in other words, the appropriateness or inappropriateness of any particular prefix to any particular Title.

33. There is no branch of the subject which calls for more research or more careful regulation, and it is only by the agency of a Committee, such as has been described, that the innumerable niceties of these prefixes and forms of address can be fully ascertained, and the application of them duly regulated. This done, it should be made a rule in granting a Title, that the prefixes to be attached to it should be authoritatively declared, and expressed in the Sunnud or Patent conveying the Title.

34. 4thly.—I am to notice " the classes of persons to whom, and the services for which, Titles should be given."

35. The rule, laid down in the Resolution of the Government of India, dated 30th May, 1829, is as follows: *

* NOTE.—A few alterations on the wording are suggested.

" Titles will be awarded on the following grounds :

1*stly*.—" Services † during war and times of public emergency.

† Political, Civil, or Military.

2*ndly*.—" Meritorious conduct on the part of landholders‡ in the " interior in aiding the Police; dis- " tinguished success in improving the " agricultural system, and the manufactures of the country ; and the execu- " tion of important Public Works.

‡ Or others, servants of Government.

3*rdly*.—" Liberal contributions for the§ support and promotion of beneficial public undertakings and institutions."

§ Establishment.

36. The Lieutenant Governor does not think that these rules, slightly altered as above proposed, call for material additions. They appear to him to comprehend nearly every kind of service, and those acts of intelligent liberality and public spirit for which honorary distinctions can with propriety be granted. The Government, however, should be expressly empowered to confer such distinctions on the son or other relative of a person who may be killed in the performance of valuable service, or who may die before the Government, shall have had time to acknowledge his service; and it may perhaps be a matter worthy of consideration whether, on the retirement of Native Judicial or Revenue Officers, such as Principal Sudder Ameens and Deputy Collectors, who have been greatly distinguished for extraordinary efficiency and unswerving integrity, the grant of the usual pension might not be accompanied by a suitable honorary distinction. The measure would certainly be gratifying to the men of this class, and, if carried out circumspectly, zealously, and judiciously, its effects would, in the opinion of His Honor, be salutary.

37. It does not seem necessary to restrict the discretion of the Government by classifying the "persons" to whom Titles should be granted. It has been ruled by the Governor General in Council, in your letter No. 3048, dated 25th May, 1859, that "the institution "should be confined to Natives of India, and that no Titles should "be given to the European British subjects of Her Majesty residing "in India otherwise than according to existing usage." This distinction appears to the Lieutenant Governor to be sufficient. The nature of the service and the particular merit of the good conduct, or the benevolent act, to be rewarded, should be regarded, rather than the social position of the man or the class of the community to which he belongs. In making recommendations for the conferring of honorary distinctions, it will be the duty of every public Officer to take care that the social position and character of his nominee are such as will not bring discredit on the class to which he may be admitted.

38. There remain for consideration the 5th, 6th, and 7th points specified at the beginning of this Minute. The two first have been anticipated in treating of the various classes of Titles to be granted. As to the 7th, the Lieutenant Governor is strongly of opinion that the value of a Title is greatly enhanced in the eyes of the Native communities, by the investiture, without which it is viewed as incomplete. The Patent, or Sunnud conferring the distinction, should always be presented by some high Officer of the Government in open Durbar, and should be invariably accompanied by a Khillut of investiture suitable to the dignity granted. Mr. Reade, late Senior Member of the Sudder Board, who was consulted on this point, gives an illustration of the value attached to the Khillut, as shown by ordinary usage. "The landholder," he says, "has his crowning felicity on his return to his home. Arrived within a short distance, he "dons his tinsel, and thus arrayed, with friends, relatives, and "clansmen around him, he enters his house in all imaginable "rejoicing. The merchant does the same."

39. The articles which shall compose the Khillut of investiture, and the value of them, should not be left to be determined by chance or caprice. A schedule should be prepared, showing the composition and the value of the Khillut, which shall accompany each Title.

40. I am only to add, in the way of a general suggestion, that it will be advisable to establish a separate Office, somewhat like the Herald's College in England, for the due regulation of the business connected with the conferring of Titles. This business has hitherto devolved on the Persian Branch of the Foreign Office, and possibly it may be thought sufficient still to leave the general control with the Secretary in that Department, and to provide that there shall be a distinct branch of the Office set apart for, and exclusively employed on, this work.

41. However this may be, there should be some responsible functionary at the head of the Office. As a first step, the fullest practicable information should be obtained in regard to all existing Titles, and complete Registers of them for each District and Division of each Presidency should be prepared. In these Registers space sufficient should be reserved to receive a copy of the Sunnud by which each Title was granted. New Titles granted would be entered on the Register under their proper classes, and in their chronological order.

42. Such a record is much required on general grounds. But if the proposals, which I have been instructed to submit, should be accepted, or any system similar to that recommended should be established, that record will be indispensable, in order that the rank of precedence of all titled Natives may be determined, and the classification suggested may be carried out.

43. The Office once established, every application for any Title or honorary distinction should be referred to it for examination, and report as to fulfilment of all the conditions required by the rules, the appropriateness of the honor recommended to the service described, the prefixes, the privileges, and substantial advantage, whether in the form of land or stipend, to be attached to the Title, and so forth. If the application should be granted on this report, the papers should be returned to the Head of the proposed Office for the preparation of the Patent, and of the requisite instructions for the formal investiture of the nominee.

44. The Lieutenant Governor is of opinion that no Title should be conferred by any other authority than His Excellency the Viceroy and Governor General in Council.

I have, &c.,
(Signed) G. COUPER.

No. 10.

From C. Currie, Esquire, Officiating Secretary to the Chief Commissioner, Oude, to C. Beadon, Esquire, Secretary to the Government of India, Foreign Department, with the Governor General, No. 101, dated Lucknow, the 14th March, 1860.

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter No. 157, dated 29th October last, regarding the grant of Titles and Honorary Distinctions to Natives of India, and inquiring whether the Chief Commissioner has anything to add with reference to your 2nd Circular No. 3841, dated 28th June last, on this subject.

2. In reply I am directed by the Chief Commissioner to forward, for the information of His Excellency the Governor General, the accompanying return of the Titles and Honorary Distinctions which have been conferred by the British Government on Natives of this Province, prepared in accordance with the instructions contained in your Circular above alluded to, and also a list of persons claiming, or, assuming Titles or Distinctions which have not been conferred upon them by the British Government.

3. With regard to the latter, the Chief Commissioner has desired me to observe that the Titles claimed originate from three sources; first, grants by Native Rulers; secondly, Titles conferred by parties to whom the power of conferment has been given by Native Rulers; and thirdly, by election of the brotherhood to which the claimant belongs.

4. Among the Titles conferred by Native Rulers are some which have been granted by the Kings of Delhi, and which have descended in the family for many generations. Those however granted by the Kings of Oude were of two kinds, some in practice hereditary, and some merely official. The Chief Commissioner is of opinion that hereditary Titles granted by the Kings of Delhi or Oude should be acknowledged by our Government, as the supreme power in any State has an undoubted right to create Titles and Honorary Distinctions within the State. In respect to the latter, however, or those Titles and Distinctions which were mere concomitants of office, the Chief Commissioner considers that they should have ceased with the termination of the office, and that any claim to their continuance is invalid. In fact this was the recognized custom under the Kings of Oude, and the Chief Commissioner has therefore recommended that most of such claims be disallowed.

5. There are many Titles in the accompanying list which were creations of the Hussunpoor Rajahs, to whom the power of creating Rajahs had been granted by the former Kings of Delhi; although the Chief Commissioner thinks that such Titles should not be acknowledged by our Government, yet he has made some exceptions in favor of those men who are the heads of their respective clans, and possessed of large landed estates. The Chief Commissioner is of opinion that, in every clan in which there is a "Recâsut," that is in which the law of primogeniture prevails, as it does in the majority of the Rajpoot families of Oude, and where the head of the clan is possessed of an estate sufficient to maintain the distinction, that the Title of Rajah should be conferred by the British Government, and made hereditary as long as the estate remains with the family by the grant of a Sunnud to that effect.

6. Whatever Titles or Distinctions may be retained, whether for life, or in perpetuity should, in the Chief Commissioner's opinion, be similarly guaranteed by the grant of a Sunnud; and with the exception of these, no other Titles or Distinctions should be allowed to be used in official documents.

7. Besides the Titles and Distinctions entered in the accompanying list, there are a number of others which may be styled Titles by courtesy, as they are assumed by the younger branches of families of which the head is a Rajah, such as Raes and Baboos. The Chief Commissioner considers it unnecessary to notice these, and would not bestow on them any official recognition. There are certain Raes entered in the list, but in their case the Title has been conferred by competent authority, and is not self assumed by right of birth.

8. The Chief Commissioner, it will be observed, has made a specific recommendation in regard to each Title.

I have, &c.,

Year of grant.	Remarks.	Chief Commissioner's Remarks.
Not known.	1 Saadut Nuggur, 2 Nimutpore, 3 Khowajkeepore in part.	No claim to the Title whatever. (Signed) C. W.
Ditto.	Khowajkeepore in part.
Ditto.	No Sunnud, his great grandfather got the Title.	As preceding. (Signed) C. W.
Ditto.	No Sunnud, but possesses a letter with Asuf-ood-Dowlah's seal to Khymujah Bux, Dya Shunker's father, styling him Rajah.	No claim whatever. (Signed) C. W.
Ditto.	Original Sunnud stated to be lost, but produces three papers, one written by Rooshunud Dowlah Naib Wazeer of Nusseeroddeen Hyder, in which Hindpal Singh's father is addressed as Rajah. This paper is dated 11th May 1822 (11th Showal Hij : 1238), second written by Jogul Kishore Nazim, and addressed to Drigpaul Singh, grandfather of Hindpal Singh, in which he is styled "Rajah," this was written in 1806. The third document produced is one written by Dya Shunker, Amil to Hindpal Singh's grandfather, in which he is also styled Rajah, it bears date 1802. The Title of Rajah has for many years past been borne by this family, and it is probable that it was originally granted by the Delhi Emperor.	Has never been acknowledged as a Rajah by the Kings of Oude, nor is he addressed as Rajah by his fellow Talookdars. He is the head of a younger branch of the Bais clans of which the Rajah of Moorarmow is the head. This man has no claims to the Title. (Signed) C. W.
Ditto.	Belongs to a very old family, is Chief of all the Bais tribe of Rajpoots in Oude, and under the Oude rule could confer the Title of Rana in the Baiswara portion of Oude. This power was given to his family by the Emperors of Delhi. Produces a firman signed by Mahomed Shah, of Delhi, in which Davee Singh, one of the Rajah's ancestors, is styled "Rajah."	Title should be maintained and declared hereditary. (Signed) C. W.
Ditto.	This is an old family, the head of the Ametheea Rajpoots—can produce no Sunnuds from the Kings of Oude, but a great number of letters, &c. from Nazims and Chuckledars, in which he and his father are invariably styled "Rajahs."	Is head of a clan, and his Title should be maintained as hereditary. (Signed) C. W.
Ditto.	No Sunnud, but letters are produced addressed to Arraroo Singh and Duljeet Singh, grandfather and father of the present Rajah; there is no doubt that the family has held the Title for many years, but there is nothing to prove when and by whom it was originally conferred.	Represents the younger branch of family of which the preceding is the head—has no claim to the Title. (Signed) C. W.
Not stated.	Brother of Maharajah Maun Singh.	Was addressed by the Native Government as Rajah while he was a Nazim, but ceased to be so addressed on losing office—has no claim. (Signed) C. W.
Ditto.	Ditto ditto.	Never had the Title conferred on him, and has no claim. (Signed) C. W.
Ditto.	Cousin of Maun Singh.	Same remark as No. 23.
Ditto.	...	Has no valid Title, is brother of Joy Lall executed—claim should not be allowed. (Signed) C. W.
